

LIST OF ORGANISATIONS:

Ahmed Iqbal Ullah Race Relations Resource Centre

The Ahmed Iqbal Ullah Education Trust archives the life stories of Black, Asian and Minority Ethnic (BAME) communities in Manchester, by running oral history projects, hosting events and exhibitions, and working with schools, for past, present and future generations.

Anthony Burgess Foundation

The International Anthony Burgess Foundation is an educational charity which encourages public and scholarly interest in the life and work of Anthony Burgess.

Humanitarian and Conflict Response Institute, University of Manchester

Leading global centre for the study of humanitarianism and conflict response, global health, international disaster management and peacebuilding.

John Rylands Research Institute and Library

Promoting world-leading research using the unique special collections of The University of Manchester Library – National Research Library in the North.

Manchester Central Library

Manchester Central Library is the headquarters of the city's library and information service in Manchester, England. Its collections include all Parliamentary Papers from 1066 onwards.

Manchester Jewish Museum

The museum is housed in a Grade II* listed (former) synagogue in Cheetham Hill, one of the most diverse areas in Manchester. They hold over 31,000 items in their collection, documenting universal stories of journeys, communities and identities from Jewish people in Manchester.

MIF Young People's Forum

A collective that meets regularly to network, discuss youth culture and issues in Manchester as well as inform the development of MIF and The Factory from young people's perspective.

MIF People's Forum

A group that meets regularly to help inform the development of MIF and The Factory. The group is made up of members from across Greater Manchester.

Pankhurst Centre

The Pankhurst Centre is an iconic site of women's activism, past and present.

People's History Museum

The People's History Museum in Manchester, England, is the UK's national centre for the collection, conservation, interpretation and study of material relating to the history of working people in the UK.

Politics Department, School of Social Sciences, University of Manchester
Politics at The University of Manchester is one of the largest and strongest groupings in the UK.

Wai Yin Society

Wai Yin Society is an organisation led by Chinese women, which provides Education and Social Welfare services to minority communities in Manchester and Greater Manchester.

Working Class Movement Library

Working people have always struggled to get their voices heard. The Working Class Movement Library in Salford is a treasure trove of books, periodicals, pamphlets, archives and artefacts from over 200 years of organising and campaigning by ordinary men and women.